E. Letter of Request:

Applicants are required to submit a one to two page letter in conjunction with this application indicating why they think they are deserving of a Zoomers scholarship. The letter should include a few points (1) Elaborate on your involvement in running (awards, contributions to your team, etc) (2) The college or institution you are planning to attend or have been accepted to and your proposed area of study (3) Any community service you have completed (not required)

F. Zoomers Commitment:

If you are selected as a scholarship recipient, you will be contacted by phone by a Zoomers officer prior to your school's award ceremony. Zoomers intends to make direct payment to the college or institution the recipient is planning to attend. The scholarship proceeds are intended to help cover the cost of tuition, textbooks, and other vital necessities. Zoomers will work with the scholarship recipient and his/her family to complete the transaction in the most expedient way possible.

G. Submitting Your Application and Request:

You may submit your application in person at a Zoomers Business meeting no later than the May meeting (see Zoomersrun.com for meeting dates and times); or you may mail your application to the following address:

Zoomers Southwest Florida Running & Triathlon Club
